

Information note on Regulation 21 (Wales)

Appeals

This regulation provides an appeal mechanism for any person (the relevant person(s) or any other person affected by the contents of the notice) who is aggrieved by the notice served under regulation 20. The person may appeal to the magistrates' court by way of a complaint within 28 days of the notice being served. The notice remains in force during the appeal (because it is still necessary to protect human health) unless the notice is suspended by the court. The court may either cancel the notice or confirm it with or without modifications.
